

Dancin! Performing Arts Center

Scholarship Sponsor Program 2010 – 2011

'Keeping Kids in the Performing Arts' is a newly developed program that provides children with a continuing education in the performing arts. 'KKPA' reaches out to children in families who are currently affected by hardships, medical, job losses and subsequent financial difficulties that prevent their continuing education in dance, music and theater arts.

The children best suited for this program have developed a dedication, discipline and skills, showing promise and passion for the performance arts.

A review committee of professionals oversee the sponsorship process, ensuring confidentiality, fairness and attention to the regulations that apply.

It has been demonstrated that children who are educated in the disciplines of dance and music develop creative skills that provide opportunities in their career paths that may never have been otherwise realized. It has also been demonstrated that children involved in the Performing Arts and true Performance Companies show abilities such as self discipline, organizational skills, self confidence and courage. They develop a team spirit allowing them to work well within a team as well as the ability to work and develop from within oneself.

Students from Dancin! Performing Arts Center, have become successful college graduates. Many are currently attending Stanford, Cal Poly, UNR, UNLV, North Carolina School of the Performing Arts, South Western Law University, Loyola Marymount CA among others. While some have gone onto enjoy flourishing careers in the Performing Arts, others practice rewarding careers in Business, Education and the Medical Fields.

We truly believe that the future of our community and the entire world is in the hands of our children. The life lessons support and love that we provide them with today to enhance and enrich their lives, reflect their future and how they live and give, tomorrow.

Dancin! is proud to present and provide this opportunity for both our Sponsors and Recipients.
